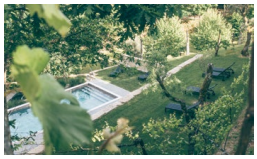
Welcome to D'Alijo Retreat Centre !



You have planned to come to our retreat center in the mountains of North Portugal. We're thrilled to welcome you as our guest! Your comfort is our top priority, and we've gathered some key details about our space and the delightful surroundings to ensure your stay is absolutely enjoyable.

HOW TO GET HERE

Together with your organizer we arrange transfers from and to the airport. You also have the option to arrive by taxi, Uber, rental car or public transport, although the latter does not offer a direct route.
Note that Uber has very irregular prices, and not available for the way back.

CHECK IN - CHECK OUT

You are welcome at D'Alijo from 15.00 onwards, room check out is at 10.00 am

WHAT IS IT LIKE HERE

We are situated in the mountains surrounded by forest and rivers, so prepare to be in nature!
Besides the people who work and live here, we have dogs, chickens and bees.

PLEASE

Show consideration for nature, fellow travellers, and our meal schedules!
Ensure you've sorted out your travel insurance.

In addition to this information sheet your primary sources of information regarding the retreat at D'Alijo are your organizer and their assistants. Your organizer will communicate details to us about necessary transfers, room assignments, dietary preferences, and any other information you've shared with them that we should be aware of.

Since we welcome over 1.200 guests each season, we respectfully request that you avoid reaching out to us directly. If you require assistance, we kindly ask you that you reach out no earlier than 2 weeks before your planned arrival. Looking forward to:

Seeing you soon at D'Alijo.
